CALL FOR PAPERS

Religious Refugees

Guest Editor: Kathryn Graham, Creative Director, MakePeace International

This issue of Refuge will explore problem of religious refugees whose numbers are growing. For example, an estimated 200 million Christians face persecution everyday for their beliefs in many parts of the world such as Sudan, China or Indonesia. Despite the lesson of the Holocaust, many Jewish communities cannot practice their religion freely in Russia. The treatment of Baha'is in Iran is despicable. Also, some Muslims have to face discrimination and fight against very negative stereotypes, which are perpetuated even in a democratic world. Unfortunately, many governments, organizations and even academic institutions which claim to stand for and fight for human rights shy away from addressing such problems in a comprehensive manner.

Topics addressed in the issue will include the following:

- the nature of religious persecution and oppression;
- the roots and contributing factors to religious persecution, i.e., religious, racial, ethnic, historic, political, economic, etc.;
- case studies, for example, Sudan, India, China, Indonesia, Iran, Burma, Russia;
- role of international community and organizations, religious institutions, governments and NGOs in addressing this problem and accommodating religious refugees;
- possible short-term and long-term remedies; and
- Canadian response to religious persecution, both governmental and public.

Contributions with abstracts are invited. They must be received no later than August 31, 1999. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and referenced in the approved Refuge format. They should not exceed 16 pages or about 4000 words. Short papers of about 900 words are also welcome. Word-processed submissions may be sent on disc or by e-mail.

On accepte aussi des articles en français. Le style doit conformer aux normes exigés pour les articles rédigés en anglais.

Deadline: August 31, 1999.
