From Being Uprooted to Surviving:
Resettlement of Vietnamese-Chinese "Boat People" in Montreal, 1980–1990
By Lawrence Lam
Toronto: York Lanes Press
ISBN 1-55014-296-8
200 pages, indexed; $18.95

The saga of the "boat people" is a dramatic story, a story of one of the largest refugee movements in recent years. Canada played a significant role in the resettlement of these refugees in bringing them to Canada where they could start anew. From Being Uprooted to Surviving by Professor Lam, is based on ethnographic data of a sample of Vietnamese-Chinese accepted for resettlement in Montreal in 1979 and 1980, who were interviewed again in 1984–85 and in 1990–91, this book provides a longitudinal account of their experience of resettlement in Canada. This experience has been marked by successive stages of their struggle to overcome structural barriers and to negotiate a meaningful niche in Canada.

Working with Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons

The Centre for Refugee Studies will publish a special issue of Refuge on “Working with Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons.”

This special issue of Refuge is intended to provide a forum to individuals and agencies working with refugees and the internally displaced persons to share information on the subject. Information will address both policy formulation and delivery of services to refugees and internally displaced persons.

Contributions with 100-word abstracts are invited. They must be received not later than June 30, 1997.

Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and referenced in proper academic form. They should not exceed 16 pages or about 4000 words. Short papers of about 900 words are also welcomed. Word-processed submissions may be sent on disc or by email.
